

Gee I'm glad ...

from Anne of Green Gables

2 brs. click

1/ Once I thought I'd like to be a blossom growing on a tree;
white and pink and lazy as can be;
But I'd be King, just in the Spring, so now I think it ^{o-v-e-r}, gee,
I'm glad I'm no one else but me!

2/ then I'd be if fate allots, A penny for somebody's thoughts shiny as a copper coin can be... but as a cent I'd just be spent so now I think it ^{o-v-e-r}
gee i'm glad i'm no one else but me

{ If you sit around and find the world is gloomy,
and it isn't just your cup of tea, it's easy to imagine that it's "Rose in Bloomy"
You can think the things you want to be.

3/ So when all is said and done, imagining's a lot of fun,
But when there are battles to be won, be what you are, it's best by far,
and soon you'll be in ^{o-v-e-r} clover, gee I'm glad I'm no one else Gee, I'm glad I'm no one else,
gee I'm glad I'm no one else but me!